Hurricane-Recovery Scams: Verify Before You Pay

A door-knock that moves faster than your insurance claim.

We Make I.T. Happen!™

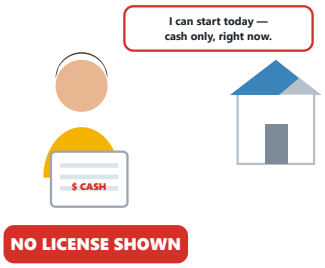

1 Someone Shows Up Fast

A "contractor" or a "FEMA agent," right after the storm.

2 They Want Cash, Today

A deposit, an "application fee," or your insurance check signed over.

3 "Sign Today for a Discount"

Real quotes don't expire in an hour.

4 "Sign Your Insurance Check Over"

Never do; pay the contractor yourself, in stages.

5 FEMA Never Charges a Fee

Not for an application, an inspection, or anything else.

6 Verify With the FEMA Helpline

Hang up, and call 1-800-621-3362 yourself.

7 Pay By Credit Card or Check Only

Never by wire, gift card, cryptocurrency, or cash.

8 Already Paid or Shared Info? Act Fast

Dispute the charge, then check IdentityTheft.gov.

Good to Know

- A real contractor can show you a license number, insurance, and local references.
- Get a full written estimate, with no blank spaces, before you sign anything.
- Not sure if a contractor or caller is real? Call 239-513-1960 before you pay.
