IRS & Tax-Season Impostor Scams

How to tell a real IRS notice from a fake one.

We Make I.T. Happen!™

1 Caller ID Proves Nothing

A caller can show any name or number, even "IRS".

2 No Gift Cards, Wire, or Crypto

The real IRS never demands payment this way.

3 No Arrest Threats

The IRS won't threaten to send police for not paying.

4 The IRS Mails You First

A real issue shows up as a letter, before any call or visit.

5 Check Your Real Account

Log in at irs.gov to see what you actually owe.

6 Or Call It Back Yourself

Use 1-800-829-1040, a number you look up, not one given to you.

7 Don't Click Refund Links

A text or email about your refund? Go to irs.gov directly instead.

8 Report It

Phishing: phishing@irs.gov. Scam calls: TIGTA 1-800-366-4484.

Good to Know

- The IRS does not contact people over social media or by text about a tax bill.
- Already shared information or paid? Call us, we'll help you sort out next steps.
- Not sure about a call or email? Call 239-513-1960.
